How to Change Kali Linux Terminal Background and Font?

As you the Kali Linux user know that when they open up the Terminal which is similar to Command Prompt (CMD) in Windows operating system, they may not like the default background color. If want to change Kali Linux Terminal background, we are here to guide you. I myself really don't like the Terminal background color because nothing looks clearly. When We want to type something, we will not be able to recognize that what we have written. So that's why we are going to help you to change your Kali Linux Terminal background.

Change Kali Linux Terminal Background

For the demonstration, we are going to do our task on Kali Linux version 2. Right now this is the latest version of Kali Linux that its user work on it. Before we get started, I'm going to tell one thing else. We have the same terminal on Mac operating system. When you want to change the Linux Terminal background it means that you know how to change Mac OS Terminal as well. Because this two operating system is somehow alike to each other.

To change Kali Linux Background, just follow the instructions below. This article will help you to learn how to change Kali Linux Terminal background and as well as Mac OS X El Capitan.

Step #1. For the first time what you are going to do is open up the Terminal. If you don't know how to open Terminal, tap on the small black square icon at the left-hand side. If you don't find it, go to the applications tab and find the terminal there.

Step #2. When you open up the Terminal, click on the Edit tab then choose Profile Preferences.

Step #3. Go to Colors Tab now then do the following activity.

1. Uncheck "Use colors from system theme "
2. Text Color
3. Background Color
4. Use Transparent Background

Uncheck the theme color and choose custom theme. Change the Text color to black or any color that you want and as well change the background color to white or a custom color that you want. Finally, uncheck the Transparent background and drag the small button to the right. Once you are satisfied with this setting, click Close at the bottom right-hand side.

How to Change Kali Linux Terminal Font?

You might see that someone use a very amazing font on Kali Linux Terminal which attract you. Don't worry about this, you as well can do it. Just go to the Terminal Edit tab then choose General tab. See the bottom left-hand side of the window and select Custom Font. Now select the font which you like it the most. Once you are agreed with this font click on the Close button to end up this process.

Conclusion

This was all about how to change Kali Linux Terminal background and font. I hope that you have enjoyed with this article and good luck. If you have got any question regarding this article feel free to ask us right below this post via comment. We will try to answer it as soon as possible. Thanks for being with us.